iUniverse, Inc. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 64 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 6.7in. x 0.2in. This is not a story about a noble leader, famous samurai, or acclaimed artist of note. This is the journal entry and life account of an ordinary man, born into poverty and raised in a town called Toyama, during feudal 16th century Japan. In his youth, he discovers a life altering family secret that sends him on a perilous journey, on which he endures extraordinary circumstances and faces numerous adversities. This will be an epic adventure that takes you into the mind and reality of a man called Namida Uta, describing his life with vivid and realistic recollection. He will depict the various stages of his life by using the synergy of the sun movements during a full day, resembling the major events in his life that brought about his manhood. In the moment of truth, Namida questions the existence of his past as a Genkaku, meaning Hallucination. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
