There are dozens of climbs all about, besides the main ascent of Mt. Tacoma. the pinnacle of success for ambitious climbers. FAMILIAR SCENE ON TACOMA WHARVES. gift of the commodious building which this progressive school has occupied since it was established. In the Social Realm. Social life in Tacoma is marked by a high degree of refinement and culture. Music and art are given unusual attention, and there are fifteen clubs which rank high in the state federation of women s clubs. The annual convention of the federation will be held in Tacoma next June, and over one hundred delegates will be entertained in the most hospitable way possible. The Ladies Musical Club is the oldest club, and has done much to maintain a high standard of art during the ten years of its existence. Churches of the leading denominations, with commodious edifices, are established. Two excellent schools arc maintained by the Catholics, the Academy of the Visitation and that of the Dominican Sisters. The sisters last year opened the splendid new building which will be sufficient for all needs of the school for years to come. Indians of Washington and the northwest only.
