MAKING TEDDY BEARS

1995. Soft Cover. Book Condition: New. 8.5 x 11 in. Collector Bookstore is a retailer of new books located in Leavenworth, Kansas. We specialize in price guides and reference books for the antiques and collectibles industry. If you can thread a needle and push it through cloth, you can make a teddy bear. In this easy-to-follow guide, Joyce Luckin provides complete instructions and full-size patterns for creating 27 huggable little bruins, ranging from 6" to 20" in length. The projects are presented in progressive order from very simple to more elaborate, allowing you to learn and improve your skills as you go along. Included are a wintry polar bear, a bear in a calico frock, a Scottish bear (with bagpipes!) and many more, both fanciful new designs and traditional favorites. Step-by-step instructions show how to prepare the patterns, select fabrics, assemble the pieces and stuff the bears. In no time at all, you'll be making adorable teddies to warm the heart of child or adult.
