Dear Sirs, We beg leave to confirm our last, and to acknowledge your letter of 7th Sept., to hand 29th Sept. The remittance which it encloses is in order, as per open sketch herewith, -- 9H 2s., in 8 drafts, to your credit, when in cash. On the other hand, we have honored the drafts as advised, -- 373, to your debit in the same open sketch of account. Your letter brought us a Certificate from the Revenue Officer, for goods short landed of our shipment to you per John Coote; but we do not know what you expect us to do with it. The Bill of Lading we sent to you by that vessel was in accordance with the Invoice, and acknowledged receipt of the full number of packages. It was in every sense your contract with the carrier, and entitled you to demand delivery accordingly at Tobago, or compensation on the spot. You are surely of sufficient experience to know the law on this point; and if you have allowed the captain to have his own way, --deferring to set the matter at rest until he arrives home, --you have lost the opportunity where and when you had it, --in your own hands. Our work is done when we send you the Bill of Lading; and if you, after that, neglect to enforce it against the ship, the loss is undoubtedly your own. It is expecting too much of...
