The drum or bugle major is borne upon the rolls as a drummer or bugler. By the circular memorandum, dated Horse Guards 11th March 1852, it is provided that a serjeant master tailor is to be enlisted specially as such; he is to have the rank and pay of a serjeant, and may be reduced for misconduct. Neither schoolmasters, bandmasters, nor armourer serjeants can be reduced to the ranks by sentence of court-martial, as they are each enlisted to perform only the special duties of their calling. In the establishment of a company, one corporal is included in every 20 rank and file; to this number one serjeant is added. One of the serjeants is a colour-serjeant, and there is one drummer and one bugler and fifer, except in the case of light infantry and rifle battalions, which...
