Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A New Book of Poems This new book of poetry has been growing for many years. The Author began to write in a poetical way when about 13 years old. The first poem of some length that came from his hand, was about that beautiful body of fresh water called Lake Erie, that lies between our Country of Liberty and Law and Patriotism, and the British Colony of Canada opposite. The poem was put in print by an Erie newspaper. It was taken up a few years later and published in a book edited by a young gentleman, Mr. Judson, of Waterford, Penna. Afterwards the poetical impulse came upon the present author when a student in College, in 1847. That production appeared in print in a newspaper of the college town. The editor expressed his approval by saying that he would gladly accept for the columns of his paper any further contributions from the diamond pen of the same writer. A number of other poetical pieces were written by the author of the present book,...
