In July, 1797, Adams county was organized and embraced in its boundaries most, if not all, of what is now Highland, and was the fourth county organized in the State. At that time there were but two white people residing within the present limits of this county. John Wilcoxon being the first settler near Sinking Spring in 1795. In August, 1798, Ross county was organized and the territory now constituting Highland, detached from Adams and included in Ross, and continued so until May 1805, when Highland was formed from Ross, Adams and Clermont, and embraced within its boundaries about half of Fayette and two thirds of Clinton. The county was then divided into four townships; New Market, Brushcreek, Liberty and Fairftjeld. Madison was then a part of Fair-field and the...
