LAP LAMBERT Academic Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 84 pages. Dimensions: 8.7in. x 5.9in. x 0.2in. This book introduces the revolutionary perspective of integrating science and religiousness. From a psychological point of view the presented concept brings a dramatic change into understanding perception and especially in understanding cognition of the reality. I highly recommend the reading of this book because it offers our mind and our soul the chance to explore the core of the reality. Katarina Habe, PhD, assistant professor Srecko Sorli Nirvikar unfolds an essential fact: the consciousness as a fundamental scientific research tool!, . . . to reveal the sacred nature of the Universe. I recommend this book. Prof. Jos Luis Lopez-Bonilla, theoretical physicist, PhD The main message teaching of this fascinating book is how to realize Cosmic Religiousness as envisioned by Einstein by first understanding and then being actually aware of the timeless nature of the Universe. Whether one agrees or not with the ideas and teachings of the author, one thing is very clear that the book will open ones eyes and heart to great possibilities in this age of Science and at this crucial moment in human history.
