Excerpt: . APPENDIX, PIECES SPOKEN AT PUBLIC EXAMINATIONS, c. The following address was delivered at the opening of an annual Examination, held at the New-York (Free now) Public School room, Chatham-street, April 7th, 1818, by one of the pupils, --written by a gentleman of this city, for the occasion: -- Respected Friends, It is a number of years since, by the benevolence of the New-York Society, for promoting the Manumission of slaves, with the assistance of several humane individuals, a school was established in this city, for the purpose of combining the influence of knowledge, with the progress of emancipation, and of qualifying the ignorant descendants of a despised and enslaved race, to become useful members of a free and enlightened community. By the firm support of that Society and its friends, and the aid granted by the State Legislature, the school has increased in...
