Stacey Joy Netzel is at the top of her game with CHASIN MASON. I was hooked at page one and stayed hooked until the end.you ll love it! Becky Dark Angel Reviews 5 Stars When his father announced his engagement to a gold-digger with a lying, scheming fourteen-year old daughter, seventeen-year old Tripp Warner left Warner Ridge Ranch and never looked back. Until the day he got the phone call that his father had died unexpectedly. Reggie Reed lives with her guilt every day but can t quite work up the courage to track down the son of the man who raised her as his own. When Tripp shows up at his father s funeral eleven years later--and a hell of a man to be reckoned with--he has no interest in her too-late apology. Worse, they ve inherited half shares of the family ranch-but only if they work together to catch Mason s Gold, the stallion a young Reggie let escape and made sure Tripp took the blame for. Tripp proposes a secret competition to the beautiful witch who stole his life: whoever catches the stallion first gets the ranch all to themselves. It sounds simple, but once they re out on the range, tempers and passions flare in the Texas heat and nothing goes as either of them expects. * First of all. Damn, he s tall. She didn t remember him being so tall eleven years ago. She took a step back. My name is not Princess. And second of all? Second of all, this is my room, so get out. Don t kick me out before we get to the good stuff. I have...
