Grammatical Development of Chinese Among Non-Native Speakers: From a Processability Account (Hardback)

By Xiaojing Wang

Cambridge Scholars Publishing, United Kingdom, 2013.
Hardback. Book Condition: New. 1st Unabridged. 208 x 150 mm.
Language: English . Brand New Book. This book marks an exciting contribution to the development and application of Processability Theory. It offers the reader an extensive overview and a critical discussion of the existing research into processability procedural skills, from Germanic to Asian and Arabic languages. It also develops a new perspective on the study of Chinese as a second language (CSL) acquisition, moving from theory to practice. The strength of this book lies not only in its innovative approach to CSL learning, but also in the potential practical applications of the approach to the development of the Chinese teaching syllabus and elicitation tasks. This research presented will benefit both learners and teachers. As a second language learner acquiring Chinese, this book will tell you how to facilitate the learning process in an easy and scientific way. As a teacher of Chinese, this book will help you to know what to teach, and how to teach it, and, importantly, will teach you how to understand learners language processing from a practical point of view. The book affords a unique insight into the Chinese processability...
