Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Reminiscences of Old Northampton: Sketches of the Town as It Appeared From 1840 to 1850 Value of particulars of olden times - Boy comes to town - Works for C. C. Nichols - New England Guards from Boston make the town a visit - The bugler of the old canal - Tippecanoe and Tyler, too, Campaign of 1840 - Sunday night political rallies - Few houses of upper elm street. I love everything that is old: - old friends, old times, old manners, old books, old wine. Stirred by reading the very interesting reminiscences of Old Northampton by some of its old-timers, which have recently appeared in the Gazette, I have written out some of my own recollections of the town, as it appeared to me in the earlier years of my residence here. I may not be able to give much that is new to the older residents now living, but what I may chronicle may awaken in them some old memories, which it will be pleasant to recall once more. I am moved to do this now, while I am physically able to do it, for I realize that the coming years for me are, at most, but few. It was a happy thought that prompted the preparation and publication of these reminiscences of the olden days at this time, for soon there will be few, if any, here living, who can boast of a residence in the town dating back to 1840. When these few are gone, who, then, will tell of the people and events of those early times, now of so much interest? I look around me and see but...
