With only six months left until she's finally married, a sheltered Laela Booker wants to experience life before she ties the knot. Motivated by an erotic dream, she ultimately decides to ask Quinton about a ménage. After embarking on a quest to find the perfect partner, she finds much more than she had ever hoped to. . . Quinton James would like nothing more than to marry his fiancée, Laela and start his long life journey as a one woman man. She's almost perfect for him: pretty, educated and most importantly, sexually adventurous. But as his past and present clash with his future, one temptation seemingly follows another. Even with the possibility of a ménage with his fiancée on the horizon, a newly discovered secret may lead him back towards his old life and into the bed of someone else. Simone- Recently married and dealing with bouts of depression, Simone Hall struggles to keep her home in one piece. Pressured by her family to stay in a loveless marriage and suspecting her husband of infidelity, her life slowly begins to unravel. Soon, she finds herself resenting everyone-- including her best friends Laela and Quinton's perfect relationship-- and searches for solace in all the wrong places. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
