B-260352 housing units that were outside the approved profile and the post had not waivers for exceeding the standards. FBO FBO applied for or received officials acknowledged that the system cannot currently identify out-of-profile properties that do not have waivers. However, they said that the system can now identify approved waivers and with further instructions to the posts, waivers in relation to profiles can be tracked. FBO officials added that the next step - the generation of compliance reports and statistics related to profiles and waivers - would then be possible. also recognizes that overall weaknesses in accountability over real FBO FBO property transactions continue. To upgrade its system capability, is examining the potential for integrating data maintained in the FBO Departments new information financial management system and the real estate management system. hopes to ( 1 ) define common data FBO requirements that can be shared between the two systems and ( 2 ) ascertain where the existing systems meet or fail to meet requirements. Complementing this effort is a planned audit by States Inspector General. FBO Planned objectives of the audit include determining whether s systems contain adequate data to serve as subsidiary accounting records for real FBO has sufficient internal controls. property and whether We recommend that the Secretary of State strengthen real property Recommendations management by taking the following actions: Revise and clarify States policies and procedures governing the use of routine maintenance and repair funds, adding a checklist of appropriate and nonappropriate charges to the routine maintenance and repair allotment. Expand s financial...
