Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Primer for Foreign-Speaking Women, Vol. 1 Urgent need has arisen for a primer in our language to be used in classes for foreign-speaking women. This pamphlet is the answer to that need. While the lessons which it contains have been well tested and found most useful, still, in a field as new as that of immigrant education, every step has in it the elements of an experiment. This book is, therefore, but a tentative course of lessons, and the Commission will be grateful for constructive criticism which will lead to improvements in the text - that a better book may come in the near future. The following suggestions on methods of teaching will prove helpful: The teacher of English to foreigners must remember that a language is used first to speak with. Reading and writing are secondary. Flash cards prepared from pieces of cardboard, each bearing a separate word, are excellent both for practice in phrase and sentence building, and in the various word-games which are a joy to beginners classes. If the same word appears in print on one side of the card and in script on the other, pupils will acquire the two almost as easily as one alone. Charts, or posters, illustrated with bright pictures should be used throughout the lessons. They hold the attention of the whole group and are thus great savers of time. They prepare the eye to follow the smaller characters on the book page. They have their influence even when the teacher is not actively using them. They are useful for reviews, when it would not be possible to reassemble all the objects on the object table....
